Canadian Muslim Community Condemns Attack on Members of Canadian Military in Toronto, Canada

Ahmadiyya Muslim Jama`at Canada denounces the hateful act of violence and prays for peace and justice

The Ahmadiyya Muslim Jama`at Canada categorically condemns the attack on Canadian Forces officers in Toronto, Ontario. The community expresses its heartfelt grief and prays for the victims and their families.

Mr. Lal Khan Malik, National President of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Jama`at Canada, said: "We are deeply troubled to hear about the attack on our Canadian Armed Forces. It is appalling and utterly disgraceful that anyone would carry out such an attack in God's name." He added: "We denounce any attempt to justify the killing of innocent lives and we stand committed to restoring peace."

The Ahmadiyya Muslim Jama`at prays for swift justice and the rapid recovery of those wounded in this hateful crime.

About the Ahmadiyya Muslim Jama`at:

The Ahmadiyya Muslim Community is a dynamic and fast-growing international revival movement within Islam. Founded in 1889, the Community spans over 200 countries with membership exceeding tens of millions. The Community is the only Islamic organization to believe that the long-awaited Messiah has come, in the person of Mirza Ghulam Ahmad (1835-1908) of Qadian, India, its founder. Ahmad claimed that God had sent him, like Jesus, to end religious wars, condemn bloodshed, reinstitute morality, justice & peace, and, most importantly, to teach mankind how to re-establish personal relationship with God.
